Dear Readers,

In the last circular of twelve months ago there was promised an annual report, and, hopefully, a more frequent one. This was on the occasion of switching over from the newsletter to a concentration on leaflets sold by newspaper advertising.

Things went swimmingly for a while, with newspaper adverts bringing in many new enquiries. But man proposes and God disposes. In these twelve months came a terminal illness, cancer, in the family, whilst another brother collapsed and died in the street. For a time I could do little new work, but the routine Daylight effort has been kept going, distribution of literature to enquirers, etc.

Sex Education. At the beginning of the year reports began to come in from Catholic mothers about the evil sexology which is being foisted upon the children in our Catholic schools. The tale would be quite incredible were it not true. (Read this Bulletin to see for yourselves).

Photocopies of the sex curriculums were sent to the Catholic mothers for their distribution. But it was soon seen that this was not enough to counter the forces against us. It is, of course, quite hopeless to expect any forthright action from our "Catholic" press. Here, obviously, is a matter of the greatest urgency, and it soon became apparent that the task of exposing this dreadful corruption of the children in our Catholic schools would have to be tackled by Daylight.

The costs of this publication are going to be heavy. It is not reproduction, but original typesetting all through (typesetting cost for 1000 copies is the same as that for 50,000 copies!) and postage costs more than the printing, whilst it is intended, D.V., to send copies to every worthwhile newspaper and magazine in the three countries, to public figures, etc., etc. But there is a near painless way in which readers can help with these expenses: if each one who receives this, excepting Religious and pensioners, etc., would slip a £1 note in an envelope and send it on the expenses should be covered. And surely £1 is not much in these days to anyone earning an income.

To aid in the widest distribution possible, it would be a great help if each activist reader would take a batch of copies, say, 50, 20, or even 10. Speaking off the cuff, the cost per copy, including postage, will likely work out around 20p. But it is recommended that some charge should be made by distributors, for it is the universal experience that people simply do not read whatever is handed to them gratis - just like advertising leaflets. In this way the cost to distributors is greatly minimised.

Now that you have read this Bulletin - particularly the mothers' reports - you will understand what is meant by "the smoke of Satan within the Church". The matter is urgent, for if the very children are to be corrupted in our Catholic schools, then we have lost every other battle that might be. Therefore, there is required the help of every true Catholic to combat this terrible evil, first by prayer, then by making all Catholics aware of this evil by stealth. Write to your bishop, write to your Catholic newspaper, to all public figures.

Let us not be discouraged by the powerful forces against us, remembering our most powerful Heavenly patrons. And remember, David did vanquish Goliath.

Here wishing everyone the joys of the feast of the Glorious Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Yours sincerely,

John G. Campbell
